Spring 2021

Welcome to the Erevena Newsletter Spring 2021

The first 3 months of 2021 have presented their fair share of juxtaposition. Some things have changed radically whilst others have very much stayed the same!

Demand from our Investor Partners is at an all-time high, we have seen it surge in 2021 like never before. As you will see in our news section below, many of our clients have raised money and are aggressively scaling.

This has led to successful Executives having amazing optionality, which has made searches tough. We are proud of our team for the amazing placements we have made in the last quarter, we have had to work incredibly hard to secure the very best people for our clients.

We have achieved all of this whilst working from our home offices, bedrooms and our kitchen tables, often whilst home schooling our children or fighting for table space with our housemates.

It's been a challenging time and maintaining our wellbeing has never been harder. I'm proud of everyone at Erevena, you have all performed amazingly under the strangest and most difficult of circumstances.

We have also had a whole host of new joiners this quarter, many of whom we are yet to meet in person. I'm excited to see you all soon.

We look forward to your feedback on our news below, and hope to meet for a coffee in real life before too long.

Announcing Erevena Growth

We're delighted that we've completed the integration of our sister company, New Peak Partners into Erevena. Founded by Ben Davies in 2016, New Peak Partners was previously 75% owned by Erevena, and now operates as Erevena Growth. Ben will continue to head up Erevena Growth and all the New Peak Partners team have transferred over.

Erevena Growth specialises in hiring first line managers and building their teams across sales, marketing, customer success, engineering, product and professional services functions.

"This integration will further strengthen our delivery capabilities, which have seen us successfully build impactful teams for clients in Europe such as Andjaro, Collibra and Coursera, and hire key strategic positions in North America and Asia for Nylas, Panaseer and Coda Payments," said Ben Davies, Senior Partner, Erevena.
